

Sinclair
Broadcasting's plan
to air an anti-John Kerry documentary
called Stolen Honor
is a blatant example
of the abuse of
airwaves. They use
the airwaves free of charge and they are obliged to serve the public interest.
Airing a biased
documentary as if it
were news is not in the public interest.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
